Quote: “My best friend is music because it is through music that people like me.” Salif Keita.

There was a focus on the celebration of African Music as follows:

- Miriam Makeba - Miriam Makeba - Pata Pata \(Live 1967\) - YouTube
- Hugh Masekela - Hugh Masekela - Grazing In The Grass \(1968\) - YouTube
- Salif Keita - Tomorrow \(Sadio\) AFRICA! - YouTube

A presentation was given on all three musical artists followed by playing the above music.

The following feedback was given:

Appreciation was given to the vibrant colours displayed in the videos. One staff member saw Hugh Masekela perform live with songs including the migration of workers and the songs that the migrants would sing. It was emphasised that Hugh Masekela’s music spanned quite a few decades.

The facilitator gave an overview of the work underway to plan the Pan London Virtual Library Launch on 21.07.22 following successful funding from NHSE/I. The NHS Knowledge Specialists have drafted a flyer, which contains images to each e-book –when you click on the image of the book you can then access the e-book once you log into the OpenAthens account. There will be an overview presentation at the launch along with a live demonstration on how to access the e-book library.
